PERSONAL.

We place at the head of this column the portraits of the President and Vice President elect of the United States, Our ize them as the familiar lineaments that weapons with which they helped yesterday to win the second Appomato: of the Republic. The pictures don't print very well on a newspaper press, and are not nearly so good looking as the originals. Those who want to see the real Ulysses and Schuyler can be gratified by going down to Washington the fourth of next March.

THE GREAT VICTORY,

The work of yesterday was well done; and the victory we celebrate this morning is magnificent beyond all anticipation. Everywhere it is the same story of large Republican gains. From Maine to California, Grant has swept the country. It looks at this writing as if every State north of Mason's and Dixon's line has given him her vote. Even New York, which the Democrata claimed by a majority counted by ten of thousands, goes for Grant by 10,000

Alas, for poor Mr. Seymour, th whelming tide has got him this time to wander from the pleasant pastures and green fields of Deerfield, but there he can vegetate and grow more olly or his own curds and creams, in undis turbed repose the rest of his natura

As for "the bould Gineral Blare, the country has no further use for him. He had probably better go to Mexico or Spain. As he once said to the Irish we can say to him, "you are wanted there (that is you may be, we are not sure you are,) and we can get along without you." What we hear from the South indicates a bad state of things in Georgia and Louisians. Louisians can hardly go any way but Democratic, for unde osscau's strategy the rebels have complete control, and the Republicans dare not attempt to vote. In Savannsb, a collision between the blacks and whites is reported. It is apparent the lambs have been muddying the stream again. Georgia has voted with Louisiana for Seymour. The other States have probably gone for Grant. But Grant is elected beyond a doubt, without a single Southern State.

West Virginia, judging from the re turns received from points along the railroad, has covered herself with glory. With a single exception, every point heard from gives a Republican gain. Parkersburg, and Williamstown, in Wood county show a gain of 200, Harrison claims one of something more than that, Lewis about the same, Upsbur 300 and so on. Buckhannon re-ports but a solliary Seymour man there. That man must be an obstinate fellow, not to be willing to make it unanimous. We vote for Buckhannon

If the people all over West Virginia voted for Grant as much as they did at the points heard from, there is hardly any telling how big our majority in the State will be. It can hardly fall below the high tide of 1866 and may swell beyond it.

The Republicans of this city and county made a gallant fight yesterday and deserved to ancceed. But the Democrats made correspondingly desperate exertions and have carried the county by a slightly increased majority. Both parties made great efforts and brought out very nearly their full vote.-The vote is the largest ever cast, We present our readers this morning, for the first time, we believe, in the history of Wheeling journalism, the vote of every township in the county the morning after the election. The majority against us is 168-25 more than in 1866, and 43 more than on the 22d ult. The Democrats claimed vesterday morning they would carry the county by a majority of 250. We hoped they wouldn't if we had had votes enough to prevent it.

To our Ohlo county friends we would say, you have given the enemy a taste of your quality, and have earned their very high respect. We shall hear no more bluster about hig majorities here. That little delusion is dispelled. We are not to give it up so. We have but to go on steadily and firmly, keeping our organization intact, informing our people and exposing the oppressions and corruptions of our Damocratic laskmasters and tax-masters here to redeem this city next winter, and the rule of the ring of vampires that now bleed us at every pore. county a year hence, from the costly
